Neff Surrenders
Learning that a warrant was out for his arrest charging him with non-support, Thomas Neff, South Webster man, galloped into town last night and surrendered to Sheriff Hickey. Neff was locked up at the jail pending his hearing before Judge Gilliland in probate court. The complaint against Neff was made by his wife who alleges that he has neglected to provide for her and their child.

Looking Up Evidence
Sheriff E. E. Hickey and attorneys A. Z. Hale and William R. Sprague spent Friday down Twin Creek way looking up evidence in a timber case which comes to trial in Common Pleas court next Wednesday.

Attorney Blair has been retained to assist the prosecution while Attorney Sprague will defend the accused men, Ed. Lawrence and Ab. Cooper.

Mrs. Wilson Gets Divorce
Lena M. Wilson was granted a divorce by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court today divorcing her from William A. Wilson, whom she married February 25, 1915. The decree was granted on the ground of willful absence and the plaintiff was awarded custody of their son, now 4 years old, and Wilson was ordered to pay $3 a week for the child.

Under Adversement
After hearing the evidence in the divorce suit of Clara Burgess, 1621 Office street, against Robert Burgess in common pleas court today, Judge Thomas took the case under advisement.

The plaintiff told the court that on the very day that she was married to Burgess, on May 26, 1917, he quit his job and that until he entered the military service in October, 1917, she worked and supported him. She said he wrote her from the military camp where he was stationed that he was

NEW YORK BY DAY AND NIGHT

(By "Jack" Hood)

NEW YORK, July 22.—Well, here I am in New York again, my third trip so far this year. The folks at our New York office wanted to know what in the world Anderson's store meant by sending me down here every other month to buy goods and what we did with all of them. They asked me if Portsmouth people were buying "Dry Goods" to store away like New Yorkers did "Wet Goods." All I could say was that folks back home were buying merchandise about as fast as we could get it in. It reminded me of a remark made by Grant Metcalf, our basement man at the store, whose duty, among other things, is to unpack all merchandise received. Grant has humor typical of the dusty sons of the south, and after one of my recent purchasing trips to New York, a whole truck-load of boxes and cases had swamped him on a real hot day, and, like Hambone, Grant had some meditations. Out of a chasm of perspiring brow, he unheeded himself of the following to Mr. Anderson, who happened to notice his worry: "Jack was utterly mighty liberal with the money over here in New York."

Thoughts while standing on the corner by my hotel this evening: Right there, two doors away, was where the gunmen shot and killed Rosenthal a few years ago. Just across the street is the Times building. It beats the Times building of Portsmouth in one way and in another way it doesn't. It has more stories above the ground, but it has only one on the ground. Right across Broadway there is the Hotel Astor. President Taft used to stop there. It's a swell place, too, but the lobby is always too crowded to suit me. There on the corner of 42nd street is the Knickerbocker. I understand Caruso has the suite on the corner, and they say that on armistice day he dropped over a thousand dollars worth of roses from his windows to the multitudes below. About forty feet under where I am standing is the grandest mix-up of subway tracks and corridors one could ever hope to find. I have to learn over every time I come here and it's no little task at that. If it belonged to me I'd just shut the whole "capoodle" up and tell folks they could walk while they're taking time to locate their trains. Night across Broadway there on top of Shanley's restaurant, is what is supposed to be the largest electric sign in the world, and what do you suppose it advertises?—Cheering gum. It's about as long as Market Square in Portsmouth, and about three stories high. You folks who cheer gum help pay for this sign, so I thought you were entitled to know about it. Where are all the big electric signs that used to advertise beers and liquors? In the cellars, I guess. I never pass that big kitten by without stopping awhile to watch it. It goes all tangled up in a spool of silk thread. It's all an electric sign. Gee, look at the dress suits. Folks are going to theaters. If a fellow would go out Chillicothe street about eight o'clock some evening with evening clothes on everybody would stop to rubber and some roughneck would be sure to "guy" him. Oh, well, a pair of overalls would look just as odd in this crowd.

Say, Mr. Times Man, I saw in one of your editions last week where O. O. McIntyre didn't want you to print his picture at the head of his New York letters any more. Since he has taken that kind of a stand I'll just ask you not to print my picture either at the head of these letters I'm sending you. I don't want to appear odd. But speaking of pictures, I'll tell you one thing. If I ever learn the name of the photographer who took those pictures of Editor Taylor that he used for campaign purposes, I'll have him taken and printed too, if I have to pay advertising rates for it. There's one thing sure—it wasn't the photographer's fault that Mr. Taylor was defeated. But just wait till woman's suffrage begins to function. Gee, I'll bet Francis X. Fairbanks will be elected president and Douglas Bushman vice-president, or vice versa.

Things I've noticed in New York: There seems to be no speed limit for automobiles. You seldom see children in the business district. Nobody speaks to anybody. The guards (conductors) on the elevated and subway all talk "Happy Hoopla" dialect. Unless you've read the Sunday Puffy sheet quite a bit you wouldn't know what names of streets they were calling. If you wait till the car stops before leaving your seat to get off, you'll get off at some other stop. Contrary to many reports, New York policemen are very gentlemanly when approached for information. Prices in stores in New York are higher than in Portsmouth. I counted one hundred and ten back buttons on a woman's shepherd plaid suit today, when she went around a corner before I finished. Buttons are certainly stylish. There isn't as much trouble over the advent of prohibition as some folks would have you believe. They all seem to think it's a great joke on the other fellow.

Most of the New York churches close up entirely, Sunday school and all, during July and August. New York folks think it's a great joke because Cincinnati is so crazy over the Reds and their chances of winning a pennant.

Miss Le Moine Jackson has issued invitations to an afternoon party from 2:30 until 5, Saturday, at her home on Second street, in honor of Miss Helen Patterson of Cincinnati, who is visiting here.

Mrs. J. T. Holstetter, of Hulsebrook street, had as guests at 6 o'clock dinner, Thursday, Misses Anna Busch, Cecile Lockhart, Elizabeth Worman, Kathryn Tref, Ida Worman, Nellie Richards, Mary Caroline Worman, Helen Cretz and the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Anna Busch, of Grandview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Chisholm, of Fifth and Union streets, have as a week-end guest, Mrs. H. Campbell, of Huntington.

Mrs. E. L. Lively, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Damm, 1016 Offshore street.

Mrs. Earl Rardin and daughter Marcella, 1551 Fifth street, accompanied Mrs. F. S. Scott, who has been a guest at the Rardin home, to Wellston for a visit today.

OFFICERS TREAT PRISONERS IN MOST CRUEL MANNER

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Further charges of cruelty to American soldiers in prisons in France were made in a letter presented today by Senator Harding, Republican, Ohio, and referred to the senate military committee for consideration in connection with the bill of Senator Chamberlain, Democrat, of Oregon, proposing cancellation of all military sentences for offenses not felonies under the federal statutes.

The letter was from Frank Woods, of Youngstown, Ohio, who was dishonorably discharged from the army after having served ten months of a three year sentence. Woods declared he saw a lieutenant knock down prisoners with a black-jack.

"I also saw Lieutenant Colonel Bull take a prisoner out, hand-cuff and shackles his feet, gag him and spread the eagle with him because he tried to get a letter to his people feeling that of the treatment he received at the prison camp," said Woods, adding that he, himself, got twenty days solitary confinement on bread and water for attempting to send his relatives of his sentence.

Woods said that he, himself, got twenty days solitary confinement on bread and water for attempting to send his relatives of his sentence.

Local Soldier Killed In Germany

Photo county's list of thirty dead. Corporal John Saufferer had died of a gunshot wound of the left chest, July 27, 1917, when he enlisted at Detroit. The first message gave no details of his death, but a second message this morning said he had been shot while guarding an ammunition train.

Mr. and Mrs. Saufferer have enlisted the aid of the Home Service Department of the Red Cross and will make an effort to have the body sent home for burial.

Corporal Saufferer was born in this city November 10, 1893. He worked as mechanic at the N. and W. Terminals and then left the city February 1917 to work in the Ford automobile plant in Detroit.

Saufferer was working at the plant when war was declared and soon afterwards he enlisted in the regular army in that city. He was with Co. G, 4th Regiment, in training at Camp Green, Charlotte, N. C. The Fourth Regiment was made part of the Third Division and he was still a member of the same Company June 10. Saufferer landed in France in April 1918. Over there his training period was from April 22 to May 31 when he was ready to go to the firing line.

He was another of Solet's county's boys who was in the thickest of the fighting the different offensives in which he took part being noted on his war record which he sent home late in June to be framed. He wrote home in June that he would be home in a month.

His active service record is as follows: Champagne-Marne Offensive, July 15-July 18, 1918. Alsne-Marne Offensive, July 18-July 29, 1918. Training Period, Gondrecourt Area, Aug. 15-Sept. 3, 1918. St. Mihiel Offensive, Sept. 12-Sept. 15, 1918. Meuse, Sept. 20-Oct. 28, 1918. Other engagements, defensive of Marne sector June 1, 1918 to July 14, 1918. Army of Occupation, Dec. 1, 1918-June 10, 1919. Particular Duty, Scout. Besides the aged parents two brothers, William and Edward, survive. Charles Saufferer of Second street, was an uncle of the soldier. Saufferer was home on a furlough before he sailed for overseas. The anxious father and mother were awaiting word of his safe return to this country when they received the tragic news of their son's death. Mrs. Saufferer collapsed Thursday night after hearing of her son's death and this morning required the services of a physician.

THE little folks are excellent judges of good things. Their taste is a natural one and not cultivated. That is the reason they are so fond of crisp, brown Jersey Corn Flakes.

And you can't fool grandfather. He chooses food which is both appetizing and nourishing. He likes his dish heaped high as do the other grownups of the family.

Jersey Corn Flakes retain their crispness in milk and do not get soggy and unappetizing. Our process of manufacturing develops the sweet, natural flavor of the corn.

To make the Home a place full of comfort, good cheer, and the most loving memories, it needs more than three square meals a day. There is nothing that will help you more to enjoy life and to make your home a better place for all concerned than a Phonograph.

If you do not have a Phonograph, you are going to get one and you will get it as soon as you realize what it would mean to you, to your family and friends.

Before you purchase your phonograph, however, hear the "Golden-Throated" Claxtonola and you will choose it on account of its many merits.

LET US MAKE IT JUST THAT

ON next Wednesday and every Wednesday thereafter the pupils of the public schools will enter upon a community savings drive.

Every house will be visited and the query put: "Do you wish to buy savings stamps?" It is not the intention to annoy or harass families with arguments and pleadings to buy, but solely to present to themselves the duty and opportunity to buy.

It is hard to imagine a campaign better conceived. No one will be solicited "to death." There will be but a simple reminder of opportunity, a grand opportunity, if properly received, an opportunity to discharge an obligation of citizenship and at the same time build a lasting benefit to one's self and family. The government needs the money and in these days of general extravagance we all need suggestions in turning to the ways of prudence and thrift. The sale of the savings stamps is to be made a permanent policy, because the government realizes that though its war needs be great, the greater thing is leading its people to the greater thing of economy and savings. Nothing would serve its desires so well as to persuade every family to put by something every week. The matter of whether that something be a quarter, dollar or a hundred, is not so important as the saving, the investment and insurance against the future. Why the trifle of a quarter a week would mean thirteen dollars a year and thirteen dollars for each of the five years the stamps run to maturity would mean near a hundred dollars. Think how wonderful it would be if every family had a hundred dollars in government securities, better than cash, because they can't be lost or destroyed, and they bring more money steadily and unflinchingly.

Remember the pupils in the spirit they come, as your friends and neighbors, calling to remind you to help yourself, and help others, by ordering a thrift stamp, or "a baby bond," every week.

THE COLORING PROCESS

BEING a thing with arid and using vicious adjectives to describe it, to the barangue, gives it a hue which it does not inherently possess.

Whether the opponent in congress to a measure, providing for the enforcement of national prohibition, was sincere or not, may be left to the conscience of the opponents, but as a rule they did not seriously distort its scope.

The bill does not sweep away the sanctity of home, it does not ruthlessly destroy individual rights, if we are to accept prohibition as sound in principle, it does not depart from the nature of the ordinary criminal statute, except in one respect, and, oddly enough, no emphasis whatever is laid on that, in the furious debate aroused. This particular departure is pregnant of danger because it subverts radically and completely the rules of testimony long established and rocks to its very foundation the principle of American criminal procedure, an accused is presumed innocent until he is found guilty. The interpretation of this in practice is that the state must prove the accused guilty, while this new law says he must prove himself innocent, all the difference possible. Glaringly too, in essence, the statute here contradicts itself, for while it makes a law for the individual to hold intoxicating liquor for his private use and not for sale, yet if he should be most maliciously and inhumanly presented for having the liquor the burden is shifted to him of proving himself innocent, in other words throw upon him the necessity of establishing a negative, which is the hardest of propositions.

There is in the measure another provision which nullifies the right of trial by jury, but as the courts have sustained the constitutionality of such an enactment, it is not looked upon as being such a serious transgression upon the rights of the individual as it actually is.

Now it is Austria crying out with a loud voice that the treaty is harsh and unjust and avowing she will never consent, but she will consent just the same as Germany did. If she had not have been such a weakling and pliant tool in the hands of the Kaiser she might have had some sympathy, though precious little good it would do. As it is now she has only contempt and the more she complains the more contemptible she seems to become.

Most of the opponents of the league of nations, who have been seen by President Wilson, announce their attitude is in no wise affected thereby. That's natural. Having taken their position without reason no reason can move them therefrom.

STILL UP IN THE AIR

WHEN the more daylight scheme was broached, we did not approve it, looking upon it as a fad of which much was claimed and mighty little to be expected.

Experience with it has shown it has some advantages, especially in the towns where people generally work by the clock. It has not occurred to us that on the farm, where labor is from dawn to dusk, that it can make any difference one way or the other. On the whole, however, our position comes near to being one of strict neutrality. We don't care particularly one way or the other.

At that we are glad that President Wilson vetoed the bill to which the daylight repeal was attached. Shuffling and dodging in legislative matter is not to be approved. The issue and the merits should have appeared and been fought to a conclusion on a straight and sole measure to repeal the statutes that set forward arbitrarily the hands of the clock. It is well that the issue should be put straight up to the legislators. They can prove they are sincere and no mere dodgers and quakers by overriding the veto of the president. The majority of them have had a lot to say here of late, now it is high time to put an end to this thing of one man and that man Wilson running the whole country. Let them stand up before him and meet him like men.

THE WISHING PLANE

Jack and Jane and their friends spent the rest of the day with Jeanne and her new found father and mother, and then they bade them good-bye. There were tears in Jeanne's mother's eyes when she thanked Ladybrave for being so good to Jeanne. There were big tears in the eyes of Jane and Jeanne, too, when they realized that they would have to leave each other.

Jack felt sad, too, because, although he probably wouldn't admit it, he had grown to think an awful lot of Jeanne, so he had to swallow a funny lump in his throat very hard and blink several times before he could say good-bye.

Each decided there must be something sad going on, for he sat down and took on the most mournful look that a little doggie can scrape up.

Before the children parted they told each other, of course, where to send letters as they could hear from each other. Jack and Jane told Jeanne that they hoped that sometime she could visit America and see how they lived in Make-Believe Town.

Jack and Jane and Ladybrave and Captain Brave slept that night in one of the big hotels in Paris. It was a new experience for the children. The next day they started out to see the places made famous by the peace conference.

First of all they went to the embassy building. It was here that the delegates to the peace conference met daily and decided questions that affected the whole world. The children saw where President Wilson, Premier Lloyd George of England, President Clemenceau of France, and the great statesmen of other nations sat during the conference.

Then they went to the Hotel Crillon. Captain Brave arranged for them to see the rooms where the American delegates stayed and where they met to decide on America's stand on all of the great questions to be settled, before going to the main conference.

Then they all climbed into a taxicab and went to the beautiful home of Prince Murat. Now I will tell you about the prince.

He is the only remaining prince in France. He is interesting to Americans because he is the descendant of an American lady. George Washington's niece, so I'm told, married Prince Achille Murat. The present prince's father was born in New Jersey. He was related to Napoleon Bonaparte's sister, too. Mother'll tell you who Napoleon was.

The Murat home is full of relics of George Washington's time. When President Wilson decided to go to France for the peace conference, the prince gladly offered his home to the president, and moved out himself that the president might occupy it. The president was more than glad to live there, because the treasures in the house reminded him of great men of early times, who had done much to make America such a wonderful nation.

The children saw the study where President Wilson worked and the beautiful rooms that he and Mrs. Wilson occupied.

Tomorrow I will tell you about their trip to the palace at Versailles where the peace treaty was signed.

New York Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 25—Thoughts were wandering around Manhattan: A Montmartre priest, wearing a blue silk suit. Fellow with shiny suit on the curb was once a big editor. Drunk Englishman huffing cigarettes. Always buy them in bulk. Wonder why? That little magic shop is always crowded. Proprietor is an Armenian. Saw his wife garroted while tied to a post.

Bryant Park benches crowded. All read the Want Ads. Bareheaded girl in sandals is Anna, chief of the Isadora Duncan dancers. Born in Switzerland. Policeman selling tickets to something or other. Petty stuff. New linen dresses look like night gowns.

WHO'S WHO

IN THE DAY'S NEWS

SENATOR WILLIAM E. BORAH
 Senator William E. Borah of Idaho has been in the senate since 1907. Without wealth, without the political organization of a great state behind him, he has attained a position in that body in some respects unique. He is noted as an orator and as a recognized authority on constitutional law.

A vigorous opponent of the league of nations plan, right now he is demanding that his party take a stand upon the question. Conditions, not parties nor party organizations, make issues, reasons Borah. This issue, he says is vital to all that Americans hold dear, and if the Republican party should refuse to take a stand on it a new party will be born to preserve the national spirit from what terms the stifling effect of internationalism and foreign entanglements.

Borah is fifty-four. He was born at Fairfield, Ill. He studied at Southern Illinois Academy and the University of Kansas. He married Miss Maudie McConnell of Boise, Ida. He has been an attorney since 1880. He made his debut in the senate in 1907 and was re-elected in 1913.

French looking girl in a silk knitted dress. Big wide Blenheim-like hat. O boy! Yellow, looks like the young men in the Vanity Fair ads. Expensive mustache. Chic Sale calls her a "society garage."

Like a look in Delmonico's windows at the dinner. A highly selected crowd. Ruddy jowled and admirably tailored. All trying to look worldly. Most of them came from Paris or such like. Can have more fun at the Depot Short Order restaurant back home. Why do people dress up?

Morelth Nicholson, the novelist, looking in a book shop window. Thoughtful person in a famous collection. Must be a lot of fun torturing animals. Such a heave and inspiring inspiration. So much accomplished!

All the avenue paraders carrying their canelike canes. Over their shoulder is a la militaire. Copy cats. Strapping fellow with the Johnsonian voice is Cesare, the cartoonist. Married O. Henry's daughter. Hello! serving coffee on the sidewalk. Household stuff. Think I'll try a cup.

My observation has been after three weeks of prohibition that there is more drunkenness on Broadway than ever. However, the prohibitionists do not deny this but declare it is a logical result of so many moderate drinkers suddenly filling their cellars. Having it handy around the house provides a great temptation. And rumors are weak. One famous drink known as Black Michael has sent a lot of hard drinkers to hospitals—with glazed eyes and chink-like features. Black Michael is a "speak easy" drink made of wood alcohol and milk. It is sold for fifty cents. One drink and the drinker is carried out feet up. The truth is that New York is rejoicing over the banishment of whiskey and gin. It did more harm in this great city than the world will ever realize. Even light wines are a nuisance as is proved in the dispiritedly table photo records where it is the chief drink—and where many young girls are lured to ruin. But you cannot convince the New Yorker that there is any harm in the 24 1/2 per cent beer. It is regarded in the same category as the cut-sunshine.

In one year nearly 25,000,000 people make use of the recreation facilities in the Borough of Manhattan. There are forty nine play grounds; eight recreation piers and seven gymnasiums.

A SUGGESTION

The largest playground is the North Meadow in Central Park of thirty acres, the smallest is the Abington Square playground, which is only seven hundredths of an acre in area. The most popular sports at the forty nine playgrounds are baseball, tennis, basketball, and soccer. Cricket is gaining in popularity, especially at Van Cortlandt park where ten or twelve games are played at the same time.

Joe Monts has sold his farm as it was too confining. When a woman gets too much change back she thinks it's luck.

He Pressed His Suit
 He pressed his suit, down on his knees. And tried to reach her ruby lips. To drink the honey there in sips. Under the green and leafy trees.

He kissed the winsome little tease. And after all, it was with ease. Despite of many caustic quips. He pressed his suit.

But after marriage love will freeze. I called upon them—saw him seize. Her hand and beg. Away she trips. And will not even mend his rips. And while I heard, "Dear, no" it please!

He pressed his suit!

—Edgar Savage.

Two sailors, an Irishman and a Scotchman, could never agree and the rest of the crew had become adepts in slandering them on an argument. One day "patron saint" was the subject, of which the Scotchman knew nothing and the Irishman just a little.

"Who was the patron saint of Ireland?" said Jack.

"Do you mean to say you don't know?" said Pat.

"Well," said Jack in deliberate tones, "hang your St. Patrick."

"In a towering rage the Irishman hesitated a second while he thought of something equally offensive, and then burst out with, "And hang your Harry Lawler!"

Chocolate Soldier Will Be Given At Chautauqua Tonight

A treat is in store for the Portsmouth public—a light opera, the "The Chocolate Soldier" has come to town. This is considered one of the most popular numbers of the entire Chautauqua program this season and from its success in every big city of the United States there can be little doubt of its reception by the local audience. "The Chocolate Soldier" will be presented at the Big Tent this evening, beginning a half hour later, than usual, at 8:30 o'clock.

Today's Program
Afternoon:
Musical Prelude—Dunbar Orchestra.
Children's Hour.
Lecture—Elizabeth M. Walsh, American Red Cross.
Evening:
Light Opera—The Chocolate Soldier.

Tomorrow's Program
Afternoon:
Concert—Kryl Orchestral Sextet.
Children's Hour.
Evening:
Musical Prelude—Kryl Orchestral Sextet.

Miscellaneous Readings—Katharine Ridgway.
Thursday was an ideal day at the Chautauqua. Hundreds of people filled the tent. A number of patrons preferred chairs and were seated at the sides and rear of the tent enjoying the out-of-doors with the musical treat. In the evening ladies satisfaction was expressed by the attitude of the patrons who heard Madame Sibyl Sammis-MacDonald sing.

With her were Theodore T. Ratzer, cellist, a youth with extremely advanced artistic execution; and Robert MacDonald, a splendid pianist and ideal accompanist.

Pesky Bed Bugs

The new chemical, P.D.Q.—Pesky Devil's Quinine—actually puts the annoying pest to bed, kills them, and keeps them from coming back. P.D.Q. kills and leaves a coating on their eggs and prevents hatching. A 25c package makes a lot of the street-out bug killer on earth. P.D.Q. goes further than a barrel of old-fashioned bed killers. Look for this devil's head on every box; also patent agent in every box of P.D.Q. The P.D.Q. kills them on sight. All leading drug stores.

Sold by Fieser & Strick, Pharmacy, Secor's Drug Store, Vreuter Pharmacy, Flood and Blake and Kelo's Drug Store at New Boston and all leading druggists.

The program was as follows:
Cello and Piano: Sonata—Corelli—Messrs. Ratzer and MacDonald.
Aria: Nymphs at Sylvains (Waltz Song)—Bemberg or Balletella (Bird Song from England)—Leonardville.
Piano: Ballad—Moszkowski.
In Aulana—Moszkowski.
Flower Waltz (From Nutcracker Suite)—Tschalkowsky-Gralinger—Mr. MacDonald.
Allegretto: When Love Is Kind (Old English)—Unknown.
Carnival (Modern French)—Four-train.
La Serenata (Italian)—Post.
If You Would Love Me (American)—MacDonald—Mrs. Sammis-MacDonald.
Cello: Farano—Cooperin-Kreiser.
Sanfilippo—Gottman.

Chanson Villagole—Popper.
Chanson Villagole—Popper—Mr. Ratzer.
Vocal, Cello and Piano: Sacrament—MacDonald.
Dance—Chadwick—Mrs. Sammis-MacDonald, Messrs. Ratzer and MacDonald.
Mrs. Sammis-MacDonald does not show temperamental capriciousness, she was very kind to her audience, responding readily to encores and in her responses often singing songs by request. Of these she sang "Waters of Minnetanka" which was one of the most charming of her entire program; "Sawancee River" and "Believe Me If All Those Honeymooning Young Chums." Mrs. Sammis-MacDonald has a very clever manner of being so-so with her audience. She has a remarkable stage presence and her personality not only fills the tent but the out-of-doors as far as her voice carries.
Her voice itself is strong, vibrant, virile, bell-like, with splendid range, and artistic coloring. With her ability to sing she combines the thorough knowledge of how to sing.
She was especially fortunate to secure the other talent of her company. Ratzer, the cellist, in accompaniment, seemed to feel the shades of meaning he threw into his music, which flew along the paths of tone with the voice of the singer.
MacDonald accomplished some exceptional work. His work as soloist was pleasing, and in accompanying the songs sung by Mrs. Sammis-MacDonald, he excelled.

Praise For Women Workers

The County War Savings Committee has received a circular letter from the State Committee, at Columbus, Ohio, dated June 10, 1919, in which it is stated that during the month of June, in the report, the committee makes special mention of the work accomplished by the women of Scioto county in the Popularity Contest.

During that drive the women of Scioto county secured over $30,000 in pledges and $10,000 in cash sales. Credit for this is due to the different contestants, to Mrs. W. H. Schwartz, chairman of the Women's Division, and to Miss Clara Simpson, who as temporary W. S. S. secretary, organized the contestants in their work. Credit is also due to those who bought—for after all, these are the ones who have the final word as to whether any drive is a success or failure. The war is not over, until the debts are squared. The Free Lance Writer and His Troubles

The free lance writer may be doomed to disappointment. To prove this I will tell a story, and have the records to show, verifying its truth. One day about sixteen years ago I mailed two jingles to Jippincott's magazine. (One was accepted at a good price, the other rejected—not only by Jippincott's, but by dozens of other magazines since, and this will be its first appearance in print—if the Times doesn't turn it down.)

Which was accepted? Any person giving the right answer will receive the Kazoo one year free. The one guessing wrong should subscribe but will not be obliged to do so. The query will be answered in our August number. The jingles appear below. Which is the worse of the two?

All Contracts Signed For New Hospital Here

Dr. H. A. Schirrmann has arrived home from a visit to Rochester, Minn., and Chicago. While at the former place he inspected the magnificent new hospital the famous Mayo Bros., are building in that city. Dr. Schirrmann gathered some important information, which has been communicated to A. W. Stoolman of Champaign, Ill. He will build the new hospital Dr. Schirrmann will erect in this city.

"Mr. Stoolman has assured me that all contracts have been signed and work will soon be started on the hospital I will build on Eighth street," Dr. Schirrmann said this morning.

"Mr. Stoolman has purchased a lot of the material for the building and when work is once under way it should move along very rapidly."

Editor Littlejohn To Locate In Illinois

Editor John D. Corns of the Ironton Register relative to John D. Littlejohn's resignation as editor of the Wellston Sentinel Thursday said: John D. Littlejohn, for some years editor of the Wellston Sentinel, has resigned his chair, and on August 1st, will go to Madison, Ill., where he will assume charge of the editorial work on the Commercial-Star of that city. We are mighty sorry to see John go so far away from home, but we know he feels it is for the best. He is a splendid newspaper man, a fine writer, and the Commercial-Star will take on a new lease of life when he begins to direct its policy. We will miss him more than we care to confess. He was to have been one of our banquet guests at the new Hotel Marting, but may not get to attend now. Editor Funk, Littlejohn and Harry Taylor, were the big "Three in this territory." The former had just winter and now Littlejohn is going west. Taylor must take on some new acquaintances, but he does this smoothly.

Don't Spoil A Good Meal With A Bad Stomach

If a physician, a specialist in stomach diseases, came to you and said: "I will fix up that miserable, worn out stomach for you or money back." "I will make it as good as new so you will not suffer from any distress and can eat what you want without fear or suffering, or money back, would you turn down his offer?" And when you are offered M-6-na stomach tablets, made from a prescription of the famous Dr. J. C. Williams, you will know how to write, are you going to be narrow minded and refuse to suffer from indigestion, or are you going to take it yourself and try M-6-na on the money back agreement. M-6-na stomach tablets are offered to you on this basis, that if they do not put your stomach into such good shape that there is no distress, your stomach, biliousness, sick headache, and stomach distress, your money will be returned. For sale by Wurstler Bros and all leading druggists.

Only those who have undergone them can realize the mental and physical discomforts which many skin affections cause. The distressing appearance and the intolerable itching and burning too often make life really miserable. Yet Resinol Ointment, aided by Resinol Soap, generally overcomes these troubles promptly, even if they are severe and long-established. The Resinol treatment stops itching instantly.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists. "What don't you try them?"

Hamilton Man Gives Nerv-Work Credit For That and Other Blessings

In connection with the Howe Drug Co.'s heavy sales of Nerv-Work at Hamilton, there are the usual number of enthusiastic reports from benefited users. Here is one given a few days ago:

Howe Drug Co.—I have been troubled for a long time with a bad stomach. I could not eat anything with any satisfaction and could not sleep. I had been doctoring with our physician, but he did not seem to relieve me. I used many other medicines, but with the first bottle of your Nerv-Work, I received much relief and after I had taken two bottles I could eat anything. In fact, am eating too much, but it does not hurt me at all and I can sleep now all night. I cannot say too much for Nerv-Work, and will gladly recommend it to any one.

BERGER GIVEN HEARING

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—Victor Berger, representative from Wisconsin, whose appeal from federal court decision sentencing him to twenty years imprisonment for violation of the espionage act, is now pending, took the stand before the special committee investigating his right to a seat in the house.

After the witness, and Chairman Dillinger, had exchanged a heated exchange as to responsibility for the war, Representative Wertz, Democrat, Ohio, suggested that the committee proceed with the question at issue—the fitness of Berger to sit in the house.

The hearing, which may continue for weeks, will be resumed tomorrow.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. M. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

(Copyright, 1919, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR JULY 27

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP.

LESSON TEXT—PHIL. 4:10-23. GOLDEN TEXT—If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.—1 John 1:7. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Psalms 137:1, 2; Mat. 23:15; John 17:20, 21; 1 Cor. 13:12; Romans 12:16, 17; 1 John 4:19. PRIMARY TOPIC—Love. Junior and one another (Acts 17:17; John 11:11). JUNIOR TOPIC—Keeping company with God's people (Acts 2:37-47). INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Our Christian friendships (John 15:12-15). SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—Bonds and benefits of Christian fellowship.

The Epistle to the Philippians furnishes us with a beautiful example of fellowship between Paul and the church at Philippi. This church on several occasions sent Paul money for his support. The particular ministry of this sort at the hands of Ephraimites while Paul was a prisoner at Rome was the occasion for this epistle. His words of thanksgiving for this gift is the text of our lesson.

1. Paul's Expression of Appreciation (4:10).

The Philippians had on several occasions expressed their sympathy and love for Paul by their gifts, but considerable time had elapsed since any gift had reached him. When their care for him again flourished by was made to greatly rejoice. He recognized that the Lord was ministering to him through these people, therefore he rejoiced in the Lord. This was a very tactful way of saying "I thank you." This gift was gladly received because he was in need and glad because it was a reminder that his friends still loved him.

2. Paul's Manly Independence (vv. 11-13).

Though sincerely appreciating the gift, he would have them know:

1. He was independent of circumstances (v. 11). Through discipline of the Lord he had learned to be content with his lot. He knew that all things work together for good (Rom. 8:28). So whatever he was experiencing at the moment was from the hand of the loving Father. Happy, indeed, is the man who has learned this secret. Paul was willing to take poverty or prosperity, whatever came.

2. Willing to take what God sent (v. 12). If it be prosperity, he would rejoice and praise God; if it be adversity, he would patiently suffer, knowing that it was permitted by the Heavenly Father because it was needful for his best interests. This is a fine example of self-mastery. It is a fine desire was not for becoming, he would not allow his heart to desire it.

3. His faith was in Christ (v. 13). The soul-poise which Paul possessed was not of himself, but because Christ indwelt him. Such composure is only possible as Christ lives in and becomes the dominant of one's life. When the life is thus surcharged with the energy of Christ, he is absolutely independent of circumstances. Such poise is possible to all who will unreservedly yield themselves to God.

4. The Fellowship of Paul and the Philippians Saints (vv. 14-19).

1. The gift of this church to Paul is an outstanding example of Christian sympathy (vv. 14-16). No other church had remembered Paul at all in his great need, but this one rendered regular aid again and again, affording a fine example of mutual love between a minister and the people supporting him.

2. The gift a spiritual blessing to the church (v. 17). Paul was pleased with their gift not primarily for its value to him, but because of the blessing which the people derived from giving it. It was fruit which abounded to their account. "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35).

3. Their gift was an acceptable act of worship—"an odor of a sweet smell, well-pleasing to God" (v. 18). True Christian giving is an act of worship to God.

4. Their gift would be rewarded by the Heavenly Father (v. 19). True Christian giving is not on the basis of prudence, but by faith in the living God who will make recompense according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Within God's Keeping. He that takes himself out of God's hands into his own by and by will not know what to do with himself.—Benjamin Whitehead.

Face of the Master. "Be sure that whenever you make an unselfish effort to comfort another, you will get a glimpse of the face of the Master."

Fills Us With Wonder. God lives above us, through the stars and the heavens—the above and the below, which we cannot penetrate or fully understand. The mysteriousness of him fills us with wonder.

FOURTH AND CHILLICOTHE STR.

May Not Be Able To Furnish Water On The Upper Floors Of Ironton's New Hotel

The Ironton Register Thursday evening said:

It has developed that the present pumping station is unable to force water up to the third, fourth and fifth and sixth floors of the new Marling Hotel and that this condition promises to seriously interfere with the opening and subsequent operation of the new hostelry. We have been fearing this eventuality and we are fearful that there can be no satisfactory solution until the new plant is placed in operation. For many years it has been practically impossible to force water to the second floor of buildings on Third street owing not so much to force at the pumping station, but to clogged and insufficient water mains. Once the new water plant is in operation, it will work satisfactorily, there will be no trouble getting water over the roof of the new hotel, if necessary, but we cannot suggest any remedy for the present sad plight of affairs. It almost seems a shame to run our present water through the new plumbing and into the clean basins and tubs, but we suppose there is no alternative. The members of the city council may have a solution of this problem, we hope they have, but to us the situation seems hopeless. The big and them work over time, if possible, to sensible thing to do is to get after the contractors with a slap stick, have cord time.

Had To Refuse Freight

Freight on the wharfoat was so heavy Wednesday afternoon that local freight for shipment had to be refused. It was the biggest day of the year at the wharfoat.

The Tacoma going up the river tied up at the wharf for over four hours discharging and loading freight. The General Wood down from Pittsburgh yesterday was tied up for two hours on account of heavy freight. Both boats also carried a big list of passengers.

Gets Contract In Akron

John A. Grimes and his foreman, Harry Cullum, left Thursday for Akron, where Mr. Grimes has a contract to put down two miles of water mains for the Akron waterworks plant. Mr. Grimes also took 15 men from this city and Ironton.

Harold Wendtken will also do some work in Akron for Mr. Grimes and has already shipped his ditch digging machine to that city. Akron plans to put down 40 miles of water mains before December 1.

BABY CARRIAGE IS DEMOLISHED BY TRUCK; CHILD SLIGHTLY HURT

Billie, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowe, of 1707 Grandview avenue, had a close call from being killed at 8 o'clock last night when the carriage in which he was riding was demolished when hit by a truck driven by Paul Newman, son of Martha Newman, a Hilltop baker.

Luckily for the baby, it was strapped in its cart or it would have been thrown to the street.

Mr. Newman stated today that the accident, which occurred at the intersection of Robinson avenue and Hutchins street, was due to the fact that the driver of another machine drove his car on the wrong side of Robinson avenue.

He claims that in his hurry to get out of this car's way his machine suddenly swerved to one side and the front wheels leaped over the curbing and struck Mr. and Mrs. Rowe's baby carriage.

The carriage was completely wrecked and it was first thought that the Rowe child had been seriously hurt. It escaped with minor scratches on its hands and across its face. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe were out for a walk when the accident occurred.

TAKES AUTO AWAY; ARRESTED

Harry Husep, 30, was arrested at Hilliard, near Columbus, yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Harry Dunham and brought here on a warrant issued from Squire Finney's court charging him with removing mortgaged property out of this county.

The complaint was filed by R. S. Prichard and alleges that he sold an auto to Husep on the installment plan and took a chattel mortgage on the machine for the deferred payments. Under the terms of the agreement it is contended, Husep was not to take the machine out of the county and paid for but instead he took the machine and went to Hilliard to work. He claims he did not understand that he was not to take the machine away.

CLASH IN SENATE OVER THE FRENCH PEACE TREATY

Start Plan To Turn Loose Great Quantity Of Food Stuff

REPUBLICANS SAY WILSON HAS VIOLATED PLEDGE IN WITHHOLDING COPY OF PACT

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, July 25.—President Wilson does not now plan to present the defensive treaty with France to the senate until after he returns from his tour of the country. This statement was made today at the White House.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Continuation of debate on the League of Nations in the senate today gave promise of being followed by another clash over President Wilson's failure to submit for ratification the treaty under which France would be promised American aid in any unprovoked attack by Germany.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—While Republicans and Democratic senators were feeling out the possibilities of former President Taft's plan for interpretation in the League of Nations ratification, that attack on President Wilson's course in concluding peace was renewed from a new quarter.

The storm center of the debate was a section of the defensive treaty with France, which published texts have shown to provide that it must be presented for senate ratification "at the same time" as the treaty with Germany. The latter was submitted two weeks ago; the former, brought back from Paris by the president, still is in his possession.

Chain Pledge Is Violated
In an hour of bitter debate, Chairman Lodge of the foreign relations committee and Senator Brandegee, Republican, Connecticut, accused the president of violating the pledge of simultaneous presentation made when he signed the treaty, and Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, and Williams, Mississippi, Democrats, of the committee, replied that the charges only revealed the attempt to "hamstring" and discredit the president.

Later Chairman Lodge presented a resolution by which the senate would "respectfully request" that the treaty be submitted so that the senate could consider it in connection with the treaty of peace with Germany.

To Be Considered Today
A request for immediate consideration was blocked by Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas, and the resolution probably will come up today. It carries this quotation from section four of the treaty as published:

"The present treaty will be submitted to the senate at the same time as the treaty of Versailles is submitted to the senate for its advice and consent to ratification."

PRISON OFFICERS WANT INCREASE
NEW YORK, July 25.—Keepers and mistresses of the "Tombs" prison sent an ultimatum to the department of correction today demanding an increase in pay. They characterized their duties as "dangerous and requiring" and ability in the handling of men to protect the public from jail deliveries. Their salaries range from $800 to $1400 a year for a ten or twelve hour day.

GRATZ, STYRIA, July 25.—(Via Basle)—Violent combats occurred Tuesday evening at Marburg, 36 miles southeast of Gratz, where a large number of the garrison revolted as a result of a dissatisfaction over demobilization. Thirty persons were killed and many wounded.

PARIS, July 25.—Dispatches from Agram and Gratz report a serious military revolt in Croatia. The revolt is taking the form of a movement for separation from Serbia and the formation of a republic. Troops are leaving their units, officers and subalterns are leaving off their insignia and the army is in a state of dissolution the address says. The railroads and telegraphs are tied up from Custer's backward. The Serbians are trying to suppress the revolution by the use of troops, both Serbian and Croatian. The movement started at a Socialist meeting where speakers advocated the formation of a republic of Jugoslavia. Slovenian and Croatian soldiers who were present in considerable numbers, cried:

"Let us separate from Serbia!"

The workers returned on the basis of the agreement reached in Washington Monday at a conference of company officials, a special committee of city council and post-office authorities.

The agreement provides that telephone companies shall permit their employees to organize, that all employees shall be reinstated, that organization activities be forbidden during working hours and that imported employees be returned to their homes.

While the Ohio Telephone Company restores its striking employees to pension and other benefits at once, the Cleveland company's employees will not be restored for six months.

MEXICO CITY, July 25.—The new political party was formed in Mexico today with "non-interference of other nations in Cuba's affairs" as its platform. The sponsors of the party are prominent men of the liberal and conservative parties who always have been outspoken in their opposition to the Platt amendment and have endeavored unsuccessfully to persuade their respective parties that they should not permit Americans to interfere in any way with Cuba's internal matters.

Aerial Air Men Out On Strike
NEW YORK, July 25.—A strike of aerial mail pilots began today, no pilot appearing to take out the plane with Chicago mail, due to start for Baltimore, Pennsylvania, at 5 a. m.

The strike, the first of its kind in the country, follows the refusal of the post-office department to reinstate two pilots discharged for refusing to take out planes Tuesday on account of the fog. Post-office officials at Belmont Park, Long Island, the landing field for mail planes, stated that they had received instructions to give out no information concerning the airplane action.

OFFICERS TREAT PRISONERS IN MOST CRUEL MANNER
WASHINGTON, July 25.—Further charges of cruelty to American soldiers in prisons in France were made in a letter presented today by Senator Harding, Republican, Ohio, and referred to the senate military committee for consideration in connection with the bill of Senator Chamberlain, Democrat, of Oregon, proposing cancellation of all military sentences for offenses not felonies under the federal statutes.

The letter was from Frank Woods, of Youngstown, Ohio, who was dishonorably discharged from the army after having served ten months of a three year sentence. Woods declared he saw a lieutenant, a sergeant, a prison officer, knock down prisoners with a black-jack.

$120,000,000 STOCK MAY BE THROWN ON MARKET

WASHINGTON, July 25.—A resolution calling upon the war department to arrange for the immediate sale of the $120,000,000 surplus stock of army food-stuffs, was being prepared today by Chairman Graham, of the house war investigating committee. The resolution was directed by a vote of the ten Republican members of the committee yesterday, and Chairman Graham expects to ask for a special rule in order to bring it before the house Monday.

The committee, with the five Democratic members withheld decision, declared for a plan of distributing foodstuffs that would "insure opportunity for the people of the United States to buy."

A report of a subcommittee appointed to go into the matter, reported that "the inactivity of these food supplies was, and is, the result of a well-defined policy by the secretary of war to withhold them from the domestic market and to protect the interests from which these products had been purchased."

The report also criticized the department for its failure to declare surplus food surplus. It estimated that on July 8, the value of this surplus stored in the United States over and above the needs of the army was as follows: Corn beef, $24,000,000; bacon, $22,000,000; hash corn beef, $10,000,000; roast beef, $20,500,000; fresh frozen meats and poultry, $20,000,000; and canned vegetables, $23,000,000.

CHILDREN PRAYING FOR PAPA'S RETURN LATTER IN JAIL FOR KILLING MAN
HAMILTON, O., July 25.—"Papa," who was praying for you every night to come home soon," was the plaintive statement in the last letter received by James N. West from his five children in Alabama City, Alabama. But West, guilty of second degree murder, following the shooting of W. O. Kittinger on a Chesapeake and Ohio train in Butler county, January 21, is in jail here awaiting sentence, and instead of seeing his children "soon," probably will be sent to the Ohio penitentiary. West's children pray, "Slightly warmer tonight."

Financial Problems
The most important financial problems in the world are not the big, national ones, but the little, personal ones.

It is more important to know where the money is coming from to pay your grocer than it is to settle the tariff question.

The first financial problem of every man is solved by starting a Savings Account.

LET US MAKE IT JUST THAT

ON next Wednesday and every Wednesday thereafter the pupils of the public schools will enter upon a community savings drive.

Every house will be visited and the query put: "Do you wish to buy savings stamps?" It is not the intention to annoy or harass families with arguments and pleadings to buy, but solely to present to themselves the duty and opportunity to buy.

It is hard to imagine a campaign better conceived. No one will be solicited "to death." There will be but a simple reminder of opportunity, a grand opportunity, if he properly received, an opportunity to discharge an obligation of citizenship and at the same time build a lasting benefit to one's self and family. The government needs the money and in these days of general extravagance we all need suggestions in turning to the ways of prudence and thrift. The sale of the savings stamps is to be made a permanent policy, because the government realizes, that though its war needs be great, the greater thing is leading its people to the greater thing of economy and savings. Nothing would serve its desires so well as to persuade every family to put by something every week. The matter of whether that something be a quarter, dollar or a hundred, is not so important as the saving, the investment and insurance against the future. Why the trifle of a quarter a week would mean thirteen dollars a year and thirteen dollars for each of the five years the stamps run to maturity would mean near a hundred dollars. Think how wonderful it would be if every family had a hundred dollars in government securities, better than cash, because they can't be lost or destroyed, and they bring more money readily and unfailingly.

Receive then the pupils in the spirit they come, as your friends and well wishers, calling to remind you to help yourself, and help yourself by ordering a thrift stamp, or "a baby bond," every one calls.

THE COLORING PROCESS

ENOUNCING a thing with arid and using vicious adjectives, if one listens but to the baroque, gives it a hue that it does not inherently possess.

Whether the opponent in congress to a measure, providing for the enforcement of national prohibition, was sincere or not, may be left to the conscience of the opponents, but as a rule they did previously distort its scope.

The bill does not sweep away the sanctity of home, it does not ruthlessly destroy individual rights, if we are to accept prohibition as sound in principle, it does not depart from the nature of the ordinary criminal statute, except in one respect, and, oddly enough, in emphasis whatever was laid on that in the furious debate roused. This particular departure is pregnant of danger because it subverts radically and completely the rules of testimony long established and rocks to its very foundation the principle of American criminal procedure, an accused is presumed innocent until he is found guilty. The interpretation of this in practice is that the state must prove the accused guilty, while this new law says he must prove himself innocent, all the difference possible. Glaringly so, in essence, the statute here contradicts itself, for while it makes it lawful for the individual to hold intoxicating liquor for his private use and not for sale, yet it should be most manifestly and unwarrantably proscribed for having the burden the burden is lifted to him of proving himself innocent, in other words throw upon him the necessity of establishing a negative, which is the hardest of propositions.

There is in the measure another provision which nullifies the right of trial by jury, but as the courts have sustained the constitutionality of such an enactment, it is not looked upon as being such a vicious transgression upon the rights of the individual as actually is.

Now it is Austria crying out with a loud voice that the treaty is harsh and unjust and avowing she will never consent, but she still consent just the same as Germany did. If she had not have been such a weakling and pliant tool in the hands of the Kaiser he might have had some sympathy, though precious little good it could do. As it is now she has only contempt and the more she complains the more contemptible she seems to become.

Most of the opponents of the league of nations, who have been seen by President Wilson, announce their attitude is in no wise affected thereby. That's natural. Having taken their position without reason no reason can move them therefrom.

STILL UP IN THE AIR

WHEN the more daylight scheme was broached, we did not approve it, looking upon it as a fad of which much was claimed and mighty little to be expected.

Experience with it has shown it has some advantages, especially in the towns where people generally work by the clock. It has not occurred to us that on the farm, where labor is from dawn to dusk, that it can make any difference one way or the other. On the whole, however, our position comes near to being one of strict neutrality. We don't care particularly one way or the other.

At that we are glad that President Wilson vetoed the bill to which the daylight repeal was attached. Shuffling and dodging in legislative matter is not to be approved. The issue and the merits should have appeared and been fought to a conclusion on a straight and sole measure to repeal the statutes that set forward arbitrarily the hands of the clock. It is well that the issue should be put straight up to the legislators. They can prove they are sincere and no mere dodgers and duckers by overriding the veto of the president. The majority of them have had a lot to say here of late, now it is high time to put an end to this thing of one man and that man Wilson running the whole country. Let them stand up before him and meet him like men.

THE WISHING PLANE

Jack and Jane and their friends spent the rest of the day with Jeanne and her new found father and mother, and then they bade them good-bye. There were tears in Jeanne's mother's eyes when she thanked Ladyfair for being so good to Jeanne. There were big tears in the eyes of Jane and Jeanne, too, when they realized that they would have to leave each other. Jack felt sad, too, because, although he probably wouldn't admit it, he had grown to think a awful lot of Jeanne. So he had to swallow a funny lump in his throat very hard and blink several times before he could say good-bye.

Books decided there must be something sad and going on, for he sat down and took on the most mournful look that a little doggie can scrape up.

Before the children parted they told each other, of course, where to send letters so they could hear from each other. Jack and Jane told Jeanne that they hoped that sometime she could visit America and see how they lived in Make-Believe Town.

Jack and Jane and Ladyfair and Captain Brave slept that night in one of the big hotels in Paris. It was a new experience for the children. The next day they started out to see the places made famous by the peace conference.

First of all they went to the embassy building. It was here that the delegates to the peace conference met, daily and decided questions that affected the whole world. The children saw where President Wilson, Premier Lloyd George of England, Premier Clemenceau of France, and the great statesmen of other nations sat during the conference.

Then they went to the Hotel Crillon. Captain Brave arranged for them to see the rooms where the American delegates stayed and where they met to decide on America's stand on all of the great questions to be settled, before going to the main conference.

Then they all climbed into a taxicab and went to the beautiful home of Prince Murat. Now I will tell you about the prince.

He is the only remaining prince in France. He is interesting to Americans because he is the descendant of an American lady. George Washington's niece, so I'm told, married Prince Achille Murat. The present prince's father was born in New Jersey. He was related to Napoleon Bonaparte's sister, too. Mother'll tell you who Napoleon was.

The Murat home is full of relics of George Washington's time. When President Wilson decided to go to France for the peace conference, the prince gladly offered his home to the president, and moved out himself that the president might occupy it. The president was more than glad to live there because the treasures in the early times, who had done much to make America such a wonderful nation.

The children saw the study where President Wilson worked and the beautiful rooms that he and Mrs. Wilson occupied.

Tomorrow I will tell you about their trip to the palace at Versailles where the peace treaty was signed.

IN THE DAYS NEWS

SENATOR WILLIAM F. BORAH
Senator William F. Borah of Idaho has been in the senate since 1907. Without wealth, without the political organization of a great state behind him, he has attained a position in that body in some respects unique. He is noted as an orator and as a recognized authority on constitutional law.

SEN. BORAH

Borah is fifty-four. He was born at Fairfield, Ill. He studied at Southern Illinois Academy and the University of Kansas. He married Miss Mabelle McConnell of Boise, Ida. He has been an attorney since 1888. He made his debut in the senate in 1907 and was re-elected in 1913.

French looking girl in a silk knitted dress. Big white Blatnik-like hat. O boy! Fellow, looks like the young man in the Vanity Fair ads. Exquisite mustache. Chic! Chic! calls 'em a "cooie garage."

Like to look in Belmont's windows at the dusters. A highly solvent crowd. Ruddy Jewell and admirably tailored. All trying to look worldly. Most of them came from Florida or such like. Can have more fun at the Depot Short Order restaurant back home. Why do people dress up?

Merleth Nicholson, the novelist, looking in a boot shop window. Naughtily looking person in a famous civilizationist. Must be a lot of fun torturing animals. Such a brave and inspiring occupation. So much accomplished.

All the avenue parades carrying their candle cars. Over their shoulder is a la utilitaire. Copy cats. Strapping fellow with the Johnsonian voice is Cesare, the cartoonist. Married O. Henry's daughter. Hello! serving coffee on the sidewalk. Boulevard stuff. Think I'll try a cup.

My observation has been after three weeks of prohibition that there is more drunkenness on Broadway than ever. However, the prohibitionists do not deny this but declare it is a logical result of so many moderate drinkers suddenly filling their cellars. Having it handy around the house provides a great temptation. And morals are weak. One famous drink known as Black Michael has sent a lot of hard drinkers to hospitals with dilated eyes and chattering features. Black Michael is a "spook" drink made of wood alcohol and milk. It is sold for fifty cents. One drink and the drinker is carried out feet up. The truth is that New York is rejoicing over the banishment of whiskey and gin. It did more harm in this great city than the world will ever realize. Even light wines are a menace as is proved in the disorderly little drinker's where it is the chief drink and where many young girls are lured to ruin. But you cannot convince the New Yorker that there is any harm in the 25% per cent beer. It is regarded in the same category as the nut-suitcase.

In one year nearly 25,000,000 people make use of the recreation facilities in the Borough of Manhattan. There are forty nine play grounds, eight recreation piers and seven gymnasiums.

A SUGGESTION

The largest playground is the North Meadow in Central Park of thirty acres, the smallest is the Abington Square playground, which is only seven hundredths of an acre in area. The most popular sports at the forty nine playgrounds are baseball, tennis, basketball, and soccer. Cricket is gaining in popularity especially at Van Cortlandt park where ten or twelve games are played at the same time.

DOC KOKO'S KOLUM

He pressed his suit down on his knees. He knelt and tried her hand to squeeze. And tried to reach her ruby lips. To drink the honey there in sips. Under the green and lanky trees.

He blessed the winsome little tease. And, after all, it was with ease. In spite of many caustic quips. He pressed his suit.

But after marriage love will freeze. I called upon them—saw him release. Her hand and leg. Away she trips. And will not even mend his rips. And while I heard, "Dear, do it, please!"

He pressed his suit!

Two sailors, an Irishman and a Scotchman, could never agree, and the rest of the crew had become adepts in starting them on an argument. One day "patron sailors" was the subject, of which the Scotchman knew nothing and the Irishman just a little.

"Who was the patron sailor of Ireland?" said Jack.

"Do you mean to say you don't know?" said Pat. "Why the holy St. Patrick."

"Well," said Jack in deliberate tones, "hang your St. Patrick."

In a towering rage the Irishman leapt to his feet and he thought of something equally offensive, and then burst out with, "And hang your Harry Tauler!"

May Not Be Able To Furnish Water On The Upper Floors Of Ironton's New Hotel

The Ironton Register Thursday evening said:

It has developed that the present plumbing station is unable to force water up to the third, fourth and fifth and sixth floors of the new Hotel Ironton and that this condition presents a serious interference with the opening and subsequent operation of the new building. We have been hearing this eventuality and we are fearful that there can be no satisfactory solution until the new plant is placed in operation. For many years it has been practically impossible to force water to the second floor of buildings on Third street owing, not so much to the pumping station, but to the clogged and insufficient water mains, and the new water plant is in operation, if it works satisfactorily, there will be no trouble getting water over the roof of the new hotel, if necessary, but we cannot suggest any remedy for the present and plight of affairs. It almost seems a shame to run our present water through the new plumbing, and into the clean basins and tubs, but we suppose there is no alternative. The members of the city council may have a solution of this problem, we hope they have, but to us the situation seems hopeless. The big and capable thing to do is to get after the contractors with a slap stick, have them work over time, if possible, to complete the new water works in record time.
